THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in discipline and instruction of the Lord."
Ephesians 6:4

Father's Day is a good opportunity to give one another the best gift of all -our presence, our attention, our time. Even if you can't be present in person, how about an old-fashioned, handwritten letter? Whatever it takes, spend time with those you love the most!

Wednesday, June 19- Chapel and Lunch from Pizza Hut (free for all registered campers!)

If you enjoy gardening or have a great visual eye please join us on Sunday, June 16th at 2:00 pm in the front church yard, to evaluate our current garden areas and make plans for updating. All are welcome. This will be a planning meeting, not a work session. Contact Sandi Christofferson or Donna Foltman for more information. Please come and help us make our grounds beautiful!
